

Policy on Naming Rights

Number 2.43

Carl Sandburg College seeks to provide recognition to donors for their generosity. The opportunity to place the name of an individual, family or corporation on a building, room, learning center, academy, gathering space, recreation area, endowed facility or staff position, etc. Although such recognition may take many forms, the College abides by the established naming practices for facilities and programs as donor recognition as outlined in the corresponding procedure.