

Carl Sandburg College is committed to being transparent about the data the College collects on students and employees as well as how it is used and with whom it is shared. Carl Sandburg College is committed to honoring student and employee privacy to the extent that is practicable.