The Carl Sandburg College Commencement ceremony is a time to recognize and celebrate the academic and co-curricular achievements of our students. Carl Sandburg College strives to provide a safe and respectful commencement ceremony for all participants. To achieve this goal, the College expects students and guests to conduct themselves in an appropriate manner that is respectful to all.

Students are expected to meet behavioral standards of conduct detailed in the Student Code of Conduct. Additional expectations include the following:

Graduation apparel

Carl Sandburg College will provide graduates with a cap and gown to be worn at the commencement ceremony. Any additional items worn with the graduation cap and gown must be approved items as listed below. The College reserves the right to ask graduates to remove any unapproved items or disallow participation in the commencement ceremony.

Registered student organizations through the Student Government Associations or college recognized programs may elect to wear a stole, medallion, or lapel pin with their graduation gown which recognizes the graduate's membership of the group.

- Only registered student organizations/college-recognized programs that have met the requirements to become an organization/program can wear the stole, medallion, or lapel pin during the commencement ceremony.
- Carl Sandburg College will not purchase the stoles/medallions/lapel pins and will not reimburse students/organizations for expenses incurred. All fundraising activities must adhere to the College's fundraising guidelines for student organizations and programs.
- The stoles must not be larger than 28 inches long from neck to end and 5 inches wide.
- The medallions must not be larger than 2 ½ inches in diameter.
- The stoles/medallions/lapel pins cannot contain any offensive language, offensive symbols, or any content that might be considered offensive, discriminatory, or an affiliation with hate groups. The College maintains the right to determine what might be considered as offensive, discriminatory, or representing an affiliation with hate groups.
- All stoles/medallions/lapel pins must be approved by the College prior to ordering to ensure they meet the size and content requirements. Registered student organizations or college-recognized programs must submit a mock up of their stole/medallion/lapel pin to the Student Services office for approval no later than 30 days prior to commencement. Registered student organizations or college-recognized programs will be notified of the approval or denial within ten days of submission. For items that are denied, the registered student organization or college-recognized program can submit a revised version for reconsideration.

The College values student involvement in our student organizations; however, memberships to student organizations/programs will not be recognized in the graduation program nor announced with the graduate's name. Only the student's involvement in Phi Theta Kappa honorary society, the achievement of graduation honors, or their status as a veteran will be recognized in the commencement ceremony and program.

Decoration of caps

The decoration of graduation caps cannot contain any offensive language, offensive symbols, or any content that might be considered offensive, discriminatory, or an affiliation with hate groups. The College maintains the right to determine what might be considered as offensive, discriminatory, or representing an affiliation with hate groups.
