

POLICY 2.68: PROFESSIONALISM

Workplace professionalism encompasses the standards of conduct, behavior and attitude that contribute to a respectful, productive and successful work environment. Sandburg employees, students, colleagues and community members are expected to demonstrate Sandburg's values of excellence, integrity and mutual respect in all professional interactions — regardless of position or background — in all work-related settings.

Original: 10/25