

Members of the governing board have authority only when acting as a board in legal sessions.

The board will not be bound in any way by any action or statements by an individual board member or employee, unless such action or statement is pursuant to specific instruction of the governing board when legally convened. Action of such member or members must be confirmed by the board.